

Youth Ministry Symposium 2017

“Caring for Casualties of the Culture” Helping Teenagers in Crisis with Rich Van Pelt

Friday, Nov 3 9 am – 3 pm
Denver Seminary - Littleton, CO

Open to all area youth workers, volunteers, pastors, teachers, ministry leaders, and parents

FREE!! Includes lunch

Join us as Rich Van Pelt shares how to helping teenagers in crisis including suicide assessment and prevention. Rich is a veteran of more than f 40 years in youth and family ministry and is Senior Director of Ministry Relationships at Compassion International. Rich is co-author of The Guide to Helping Teenagers in Crisis book/ DVD series.

Morning session: Helping Teenagers in Crisis – Becoming Safe People
Afternoon session: Be A Lifesaver – Helping Suicidal Adolescents

WHERE: Denver Seminary Chapel 6399 South Santa Fe Drive, Littleton, CO
WHEN: Friday, Nov. 3 – 9am-3pm – Doors open at 8:30am

PLEASE REGISTER to reserve your free lunch: www.gordon.edu/denver2017

For more information contact: brad.widstrom@denverseminary.edu
Or bob.whittet@gordon.edu 978.867.4363

Sponsored by:

